LOCATION & HISTORY

Located just two blocks from the Colorado Convention Center stands the nine story Masonic Building. Erected in 1889, this historic structure houses the Appaloosa Grill. Once a jewel in the crown of brewpub pioneer turned Colorado Governor John W. Hickenlooper, the grill has held sway on the corner of 16th & Welton since 2001. This particular mall crossing honors one of Denver's founding fathers, Norton W. Welton. These men's shared middle name, Wright, was chosen as this private room's moniker.

MINIMUM SPENDING REQUIREMENT

Use of the Wright Room does not require a room fee. Instead, there is a minimum spending requirement, to be used in food and beverage purchases, before tax and service charges are added.
